NOTICE OF TRUST AND DECLARATION

Pursuant to the Constitution of the Republic known as Nevada state, Article 1, Section 15, and one's right of contract, guaranteed and protected by the U.S. Constitution, Article 10, [NOTICE] is hereby given that a contract of a foreign inter vivos IRREVOCABLE FAMILY PURE TRUST has been formed.

Said PURE TRUST is formed specifically to be foreign to the jurisdiction of the United States, it's Territories, and Possessions pursuant to Treasury Department Publication 519 and Form W-8. See Black's Law Dictionary, 5th Ed., page 1262, Foreign state and page 1375, for the several meanings of the term United States. See, also, United States Code, Title 26, Section 7701 (a) (31), "Foreign estate or trust."

This PURE TRUST is a non-statutory trust. The Creator(s) did not and does not look to State or Federal government (legislative statutes or jurisdiction) for permission of it's creation and it is not within the "state of the form" as that term is defined in Black's Law Dictionary, at page 589. Also pursuant to Eljot v. Freeman, 220 U.S. 178, "A pure trust is not subject to legislative control" and Weeks v. Sibley, (D.C.) 269 F. 155, "A pure trust is not illegal if formed for the express purpose of avoiding taxation."

This PURE TRUST does not look to any local, state or federal entity for any legislative statutory remedy regarding any legal action/tort of any kind in any venue other than those laws governing the common law right of contract. Anyone taking legal action against this PURE TRUST the only legal jurisdiction that will govern will be that of a U.S. Constitution, Article 111 Court, governing the right of contract pursuant to the Constitution for the united States for America or a national recognized arbitration service.

The below named PURE TRUST was established by contract dated 1 May 1994 in the county of Douglas, Nevada Republic, by and between the Creator(s) and accepted by the Trustee(s) named in said PURE TRUST in the name of

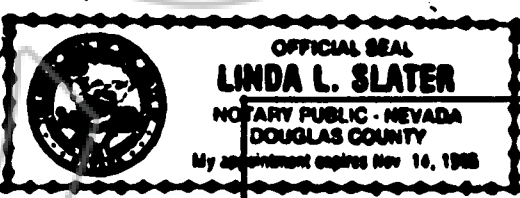

LIBERTY FAMILY TRUST

Any Bill of Sale, Real and/or Personal Property Schedule(s) and/or Exhibit(s) of property sold, conveyed, or transferred to the above Trust shall be the only proof necessary that said property is the property of said trust and made a part thereof.
