2. That the current beneficiary under the terms of said Declaration of Trust is the settlor.
3. That the power and authority of the Trustee with respect to the Trust property includes, by way of illustration, the following:
 - A. To sell, exchange, convey, refinance, lease, repair, abandon, pledge for security, and exercise all the rights powers and privileges which an absolute owner of the same property would have regarding any property which the Trustee chooses to receive.
 - B. To open bank accounts, to borrow money with or without security, to receive all dividends, interest and other income and to compromise and settle claims. Any banking institution that establishes accounts in the name of the Trust is advised that there is nothing in the Declaration of Trust that requires any banking institution to exercise any discretion other than required in normal banking procedures. Any and all bank accounts, including checking and savings accounts, established in the name of the Trust by the Trustees shall be subject to withdrawal, and all checks drafts and other obligations of the trust shall be honored by said depositories upon the signature(s) of the Trustees.
 - C. To invest and reinvest the trust estate in every kind of property, real, personal, or mixed, and every kind of investment, specifically including, but not by way of limitation, corporate obligations of every kind, stocks, preferred or common, shares in investment trusts, investment companies, mutual funds and mortgage participation.
 - D. To maintain and operate brokerage accounts with brokers.
 - E. To carry insurance, including life insurance on any person, at the expense of the trust of such kinds and in such amounts as the Trustee(s) deem advisable to protect the trust estate against any damage or loss and to protect the trustee against liability with respect to third parties. The settlor reserves the right to appoint trustees and successor trustees and to remove any trustee(s) from office at any time while alive. Unless otherwise stated in writing by the settlor, the trustee(s) of the Declaration of Trust shall be considered to be those mentioned above.

5. The enumeration of certain powers of the Trustee shall not be interpreted as a limitation of any right of the Trustee not so enumerated, the Trustee being vested with and having all rights, duties, powers and privileges which an absolute owner of the same property would have.
