8 Plaintiff,

9 vs.

10 RONALD RAY SCHILLING,

11 Defendant.

ORDER AFTER HEARING ON OBJECTIONS TO MASTER'S RECOMMENDATIONS

12
13 This matter came before the court on October 5, 2005, upon the objection of Ronald Ray 14 Schilling, defendant, to the Master's finding on August 12, 2005, that the defendant had failed to 15 show that he was entitled to a reduction in the level of child support paid for Rumor Schilling, born 16 February 2, 1995, and Skye Schilling, born February 23, 1996. Present for the hearing on the 17 defendant's objection to the Master's recommendation was the defendant, without counsel, and the 18 plaintiff, Monika Kamille Benson, appearing with her attorney David J. Morandi, Esq.

19 By order of this court filed June 23, 2004, the defendant was obligated to pay child support 20 for his two minor children in the amount of $800.00 each month plus $66.00 each month toward 21 health insurance for the children and $31.00 each month toward dental insurance for the two 22 children. Thus, the defendant's total obligation of support was set at $897.00 each month. Later 23 Defendant's total obligation was reduced to $866.00 per month by Stipulated Order filed on 24 September 2, 2004, when dental coverage was dropped. In June of 2005, the defendant sought a 25 modification of that order seeking to reduce his obligation of support claiming that the level of 26 support was set when he was earning the wages of a plumber and since that time he had injured his 27 back and could no longer earn that level of income as a plumber. The Hearing Master considering 28 that request for modification refused to grant the defendant the reduction he sought.

1 Included in the documentation provided to the District Attorney's office by the defendant was 2 a letter dated July 8, 2005, from Dr. Michael F. Fry, M.D., stating that the defendant had been 3 evaluated and determined to be suffering from multi-level lumbar spondylosis and degenerative disc 4 disease. According to Dr. Fry's letter it was a chronic condition but Dr. Fry recommended that the 5 defendant "change his current occupation in that he would run the crews rather than perform the 6 work." Upon inquiry by the court the defendant admitted that he had made no effort to secure 7 employment as a plumbing supervisor. Instead, he simply sought alternative employment which 8 resulted in a significant loss of earnings. According to documentation provided by the defendant he 9 earns approximately $1,000.00 each month as a manager of an RV park but according to the 10 financial declaration filed by the defendant his gross monthly income is $1,717.50, which sum may 11 include his wife's earnings, also. Based on a monthly income of $1,717.50 month, defendant's 12 ongoing child support obligation is $429.38. One-half of the cost of medical insurance for the 13 children provided by the plaintiff is $64.67. At the time of the hearing the defendant's medical cash 14 arrears were $801.62, and defendant's child support arrears were $5,808.33, for which he should be 15 paying $42.93 each month. Thus, the total monthly amount of support defendant should be paying 16 according to the financial information he provided is $536.98.

17 It appears to the court that the defendant, Ronald Ray Schilling, is willfully under-employed.
18 However, his monthly obligation for support shall be reduced to $429.38, beginning November 1, 19 2005, until April of 2006, at which time this case shall again be reviewed by the Hearing Master for 20 the defendant to show cause what efforts, if any, he has made to earn an income commensurate with 21 his skill and experience. No arrears shall accrue during that six month period as long as defendant 22 makes his total monthly support, medical cash, and arrears payment of $536.98 each month.

23 DATED this 4 day of November, 2005.
