21 THIS MATTER comes before the court upon a Motion to 22 Enforce Settlement Agreement and to Compel Payment in Full
23 brought by Third-Party Defendant/Counterclaimant Rock Island
24 Corporation (Rock Island).

25
26 Facts

27 As the procedural history and underlying facts are well
28 known to all parties, the court limits its recitation thereof

1 to those necessary to the resolution of the instant motion.

2 On February 23, 2004, Rock Island sent Defendants/
3 Counterclaimants Michael Bogdanovich and Ruza Bogdanovich
4 (collectively, the Bogdanoviches) a letter demanding $10,000.00
5 to resolve the lawsuit between them in its entirety. By its 6 terms, each party was to pay its own attorney fees and costs.
7 On September 28, 2004, the Bogdanoviches signed a Mutual
8 Release of All Claims under which they agreed to pay Rock
9 Island $10,000.00, $3,000.00 of which was payable within sixty 10 days of the entry of an order of dismissal and $7,000.00 of 11 which, plus interest at 6% would be paid within two years of 12 the entry of order of dismissal, to be secured by a lien on the 13 property known as the Braun parcel or due upon the sale of any 14 portion thereof, whichever occurred first.
15

16 On October 4, 2004, the Bogdanoviches and Rock Island
17 filed a Stipulation for Dismissal with Prejudice of All Claims 18 between the Bogdanoviches and Rock Island.

19 To date, no payment has been made by the Bogdanoviches, 20 who have also refused to execute a deed of trust in favor of 21 Rock Island. Rock Island prays that the court compel the 22 Bogdanoviches to make payment in full ($10,000.00) and that 23 they be ordered to pay attorney fees incurred by Rock Island in 24 enforcing this agreement.
25

26 The Bogdanoviches do not deny that they have refused to 27 comply with the agreement; they, however, allege that they were 28 never provided with a release signed by Rock Island and the

1 deed of trust presented to them contained an erroneous legal 2 description of the property to be encumbered. Moreover, they 3 allege that Mr. Victor continued to help in the prosecution of 4 the suit against them.

5 Rock Island counters that it has fully complied with the 6 terms of the settlement agreement, despite any technical 7 errors, e.g., its failure to sign the release or its inclusion
8 of an inaccurate legal description of the property in question.
9 Indeed, despite its failure to sign the release, a stipulation
10 and order dismissing all its claims with prejudice has been 11 entered by the court. Finally, it underscore the absence of 12 any evidence that Victor has aided the Plaintiffs in this case.

14 Analysis

15 Rock Island's failure to deliver a signed copy of the 16 release notwithstanding, the Bogdanoviches have received the 17 benefit of their bargain. To allow them to escape their 18 obligations under the circumstances would be unconscionable and 19 result in substantial injustice. The court finds that they are 20 estopped from maintaining a position inconsistent with one in 21 which they accepted their bargained-for benefit. Kentucky
22 Hosp. Ass'n Trust v. Chicago Ins. Co., 978 S.W.2d 754 (Ky. App.
23 1998).

24 Despite the Bogdanoviches' asseverations to the contrary, 25 the Mutual Release of All Claims clearly requires the 26 Bogdanoviches to execute documents necessary to Rock Island's 27 obtaining a lien or security interest on the Braun parcel.
28

1 With respect to the payment of all sums owed Rock Island
2 under the settlement agreement, the court concurs with the 3 Bogdanoviches that there exists no right for such an 4 accelerated payment. That does not, however, excuse their late 5 payment of the initial $3,000.00.

6 Insofar as the settlement agreement was signed by the 7 party against whom it is sought to be enforced, the court finds
8 that it is valid and enforceable. Szilagyi v. Testa, 99 Nev.
9 834, 839 (1993). Bogdanoviches' arguments are unavailing.

10 With respect to attorney fees, pursuant to NRS 18.010 and 11 NRCPC 11, the court finds that the Bogdanoviches' refusal to 12 comply with their end of the agreement was unreasonable and 13 designed to harass Rock Island, the prevailing party in this 14 motion. Public policy favors the resolution and enforcement of 15 settlement agreements. Municipality of Anchorage v. Schneider, 16 685 P.2d 94, 98 (Alaska 1984); Levy v. Superior Court, 10 Cal.
17 4th 578, 592 (Cal. 1995). See also, Lewis v. U.S., 17 F.Supp.
18 543, 546 (D. Colo. 1936).

19 Consequently, having reviewed the pleadings and relevant 20 documents herein, and good cause appearing, the court hereby 21 GRANTS Rock Island's Motion, directing the Bogdanoviches to pay 22 all sums due under the agreement as they originally were to 23 come due. Therefore, the Bogdanoviches are to pay Rock Island 24 $3,000.00 not later than August 15, 2005; likewise, they are to 25 execute a deed of trust in favor of Rock Island over the 26 property in question, by the same date.
