17. In addition to the monthly payments required upon the note secured hereby, Trustor agrees to fund an impound account to pay real property taxes and hazard insurance premiums upon the property encumbered hereby. The monthly amount required to be paid to the impound account shall be established by Beneficiary, from time to time, and shall approximate the sum of 1/12th of the amount necessary to pay the annual insurance premiums upon the property and 1/12th of the amount necessary to pay annual real property taxes upon the property.
