The State of Nevada has created a mediation program for homeowners whose owner-occupied, primary residence is subject to foreclosure. Mediation is a process through which you and the lender meet with a neutral mediator to determine whether an agreement can be reached to cure any defaults in the loan or modify the terms of the loan to enable you to remain in your home. The mediator will be appointed by the Foreclosure Mediation Program Administrator. The mediator will not provide legal advice to either party. If you feel the need for legal representation, it is recommended that you consult an attorney concerning your rights and responsibilities and to assist you in the mediation.
