CERTIFICATE OF THE
WILLIAM AND NANCY ATEN LIVING TRUST
DATED 12/30/03, AS AMENDED

THE UNDERSIGNED hereby swear (or affirm) under penalty of perjury, that the following assertions are true of their own personal knowledge:

1. Name and Date of Trust. WILLIAM A. ATEN and NANCY K. ATEN, as Settlers and Trustees, executed THE WILLIAM AND NANCY ATEN LIVING TRUST on December 30, 2003, thereby creating a revocable living trust identified as THE WILLIAM AND NANCY ATEN LIVING TRUST. On 10/1, 2012, the Settlers and Trustees executed an Amendment to and Restatement of The William and Nancy Aten Living Trust.

2. Identification of Successor Trustees.

A. INITIAL TRUSTEES. WILLIAM A. ATEN and NANCY K. ATEN shall serve as Co-Trustees of all trusts created by, or to be created in accordance with, this Trust Agreement. In the event either WILLIAM A. ATEN or NANCY K. ATEN shall resign or otherwise become unable to act as Trustee, then the other shall serve alone as Trustee of all trusts provided for in this Trust Agreement.

B. Both WILLIAM A. ATEN and NANCY K. ATEN Unable to Act. In the event both WILLIAM A. ATEN and NANCY K. ATEN shall resign or otherwise become unable to act as Trustee, then BRIAN MacNEILL shall be appointed as successor Trustee of all trusts provided for in this Trust Agreement. In the event BRIAN MacNEILL shall resign or otherwise become unable to act as Trustee, and NANCY K. ATEN has predeceased WILLIAM A. ATEN, then CHRISTINA ATEN ROLFF shall be appointed as successor Trustee of all trusts provided for in this Trust Agreement. On the other hand, in the event BRIAN MacNEILL shall resign or otherwise become unable to act as Trustee, and WILLIAM A. ATEN has predeceased NANCY K. ATEN, then HAL W. KOPACEK shall be appointed as successor Trustee of all trusts provided for in this Trust Agreement.

C. All Named Trustees Unable to Act. In the event all Trustees named in this Trust Agreement shall resign or otherwise be unable to act hereunder, the last surviving named Trustee to resign or otherwise become unable to so act shall appoint a successor Trustee. In the event such last surviving named Trustee fails or is unable to make such an appointment, the beneficiaries under this Trust shall secure the appointment of a successor Trustee or Trustees by a court of competent jurisdiction, at the expense of this Trust, which expense shall be borne proportionately by the respective trusts and shares then constituted.

D. Incapacity of Trustee. Whenever two licensed, practicing medical doctors who are not related by blood or marriage to either Settlor or to any beneficiary or Trustee of this trust certify in writing that a person serving as Trustee cannot discharge the duties of Trustee because of temporary or permanent mental or physical infirmity and certified copies of the certificates are personally served upon that person, then the office of that person shall be deemed vacated and the alternate Trustee provisions under this Section Five shall apply. However, if after receipt of the certificates, the Trustee alleged to be incompetent gives written notice to the person causing the certificates to be issued that he or she disagrees with the doctors, then the Trustee shall continue in office unless he or she resigns or is removed by a court of competent jurisdiction.

If a Trustee has been removed and, at a later date, the removed Trustee regains competency and can evidence said competency with written affidavits from two licensed, practicing medical doctors who are not related by blood or marriage to either Settlor or to any beneficiary or Trustee of this trust, and serves said affidavits upon the acting Trustees, the removed Trustee shall replace the acting Trustee(s) and resume duties as Trustee hereunder. Anyone dealing with the trust may rely upon written medical certificates, or a photocopy of them, presented by the successor Trustee(s), or original Trustee(s), and shall incur no liability to any beneficiary for any dealings by that person with any designated Trustee(s) or successor Trustee(s), provided that his or her reliance on said certificates is exercised in good faith. This provision is inserted in this document to encourage third parties to deal with any Trustee or successor Trustee(s) without the need for court proceedings.

E. Acceptance. Each individual or corporation becoming a successor Trustee under this Trust, or any of the other trusts created herein, shall accept the office of Trustee in writing. Acceptance shall take effect immediately upon delivery of such written acceptance to Settlor, during his or her lifetime and, thereafter, to any Trustee hereunder; if, for any reason, there shall be no Trustee then serving, to any beneficiary hereunder, without the necessity of any other act, instrument, conveyance or means of transfer.

Whenever, in this Trust Agreement, reference is made to Trustee, Trustees, or Co-Trustees, such reference shall include not only the original Trustees named, but also any and all successor Trustees, and any rights and powers given to the Trustees shall be vested in the successor Trustees with like rights and obligations.

3. Title of Assets. The form in which title to assets of the trust is to be taken is as follows: WILLIAM A. ATEN and NANCY K. ATEN, Trustees of THE WILLIAM AND NANCY ATEN LIVING TRUST DATED 12/30/03, as amended.

4. Powers of Trustees.

A. Investment During Joint Lives of Settlers. During the joint lives of Settlers, the Trustees are authorized to retain in the trusts provided for in this agreement, for so long as the Trustees may deem advisable and in the best interests of such trusts, any property received by Trustees from Settlers, or either of them. After the death of the first of WILLIAM A. ATEN and NANCY K. ATEN to die, the Trustees are authorized to retain and maintain the family residence, or suitable replacement, together with furnishings and personal possessions for so long as the survivor occupies and uses the same.

B. Retention of Property. To hold and retain for such time as the Trustees deem advisable and prudent, any property received into this Trust at its inception or subsequently added thereto or acquired pursuant to proper authority; to retain or acquire unproductive assets which the Trustees deem advisable and prudent, as Settlers, or the survivor of them, may direct or approve.

C. Management Powers. To manage and control the trust estate and to encumber, sell (for cash or on deferred payments), convey, exchange, partition, divide, improve, and repair trust property or otherwise dispose of any of the trust property; to grant options; to lease trust property for any purpose and for terms within or extending beyond the duration of this Trust, including exploration for the removal of gas, oil and other minerals; and to enter into community oil leases, pooling, and utilization agreements; to create restrictions, easements, and other servitudes.

D. Insurance. To carry insurance of such kinds and in such amounts as the Trustees may deem advisable and prudent, at the expense of the Trust, in order to protect the trust estate and the Trustees personally against any risk or hazard.

E. Operation of Business. To continue the operation of any business lawfully received into the Trust, whether organized as a sole proprietorship, partnership, limited liability company or corporation; to do and perform all acts that Trustees deem advisable and prudent in the operation of such business; and to dissolve, liquidate or sell such business at such time and on such terms as Trustees deem advisable and prudent.

F. Investment Powers. To invest and reinvest the trust estate in every kind of property, real, personal or mixed, and every kind of investment, specifically including, but not being limited to, corporate obligations of every kind, stocks, preferred or common, shares of investment trusts, investment companies, certificates of deposit, bonds, and/or mutual funds, that men or women of prudence, discretion and intelligence acquire for their own account, including any common trust fund administered by the successor Trustees. The investments need not be diversified.

G. Securities. To acquire, register or qualify for exemption from registration, and to sell any securities (including options, whether "puts" or "calls") or other property held under the Trust in the name of Trustees or in the name of a nominee with or without the addition of words indicating that such securities or other property are held in a fiduciary capacity, and to hold in bearer form any securities or other property held hereunder so that title thereto will pass by delivery; however, the books and records of Trustees shall show that all such investments are part of the Trust; and to enter into short sales of securities. To have all the rights, powers and privileges of an owner with respect to the securities held in trust including, but not limited to, the power to vote, give proxies and pay assessments; to participate in voting trusts, pooling agreements, foreclosures, reorganizations, consolidations, mergers and liquidations, and incident to such participation to deposit securities with and transfer title to any protective or other committee on such terms as the Trustees may deem advisable; and to exercise and sell stock subscription or conversion rights.

H. Litigate or Compromise Claims. To commence or defend, at the expense of the Trust, such litigation with respect to the Trust or any property of the trust estate as the Trustees may deem advisable or prudent; to compromise or otherwise adjust any claims or litigation against or in favor of the trust.

I. Loans of Trust Assets. To make secured loans in such amounts, upon such terms, at such rates of interest and on such security as Trustees deem prudent, provided such secured loans are properly in writing; and to purchase a holder's interest in a secured promissory note and the security therefor at such discount as Trustees shall deem prudent, taking into account the terms thereof, the rate of interest, and the nature of the security.

J. Borrow Money. To borrow money for any trust purpose upon such terms and conditions as the Trustees may deem proper, and to obligate the trust estate for repayment; to encumber the trust estate or its property by mortgage, deed of trust, pledge or otherwise, using such procedure to consummate the transaction as the Trustees may deem advisable. The power of the Trustees to borrow shall include the power to borrow money on behalf of one trust from any other trust provided for in this Trust Agreement, and to obligate the trusts, or any of them, provided for in this Trust Agreement to repay such borrowed money.

K. Income v. Principal. To determine what is principal or income of the trust estate and apportion and allocate such principal or income in accordance with the provisions of the applicable statutes of the State of Nevada as they may now exist and may from time to time be enacted, amended or repealed; any such matter not provided for either in this instrument or under the laws of the State of Nevada shall be determined by the Trustees in accordance with accepted accounting practices.

L. Advance Money. To loan or advance the Trustees' own funds to the Trust for any trust purpose, with interest at current rates; to receive security for such loans in the form of a mortgage, pledge, deed of trust or other encumbrance of any assets of the Trust; to purchase assets of the Trust at their fair market value as determined by an independent appraisal of those assets; and to sell property to the trust at a price not in excess of its fair market value as determined by an independent appraisal.

M. Transactions With Settlers and Beneficiaries. To purchase, at fair market value, securities or other property from, or otherwise contract with Settlers, or either of them, the beneficiaries under the Trust or any of the respective trusts and shares herein created, or the legal representatives of their respective estates, and to make secured or unsecured loans to Settlers, either of them, beneficiaries hereunder or the legal representatives of their respective estates, in such amounts, upon such terms, at such rates of interest and on such security as Trustees deem advisable and prudent.

N. Distribution of Assets. To partition, allot and distribute the trust estate, regarding any division or partial or final distribution of the trust estate, in money, undivided interests or in kind or partly in money and partly in kind, at valuations determined by the Trustees, and to sell such property as the Trustees may deem necessary to make any division or distribution. In making any division or partial or final distribution of the trust estate, the Trustees shall be under no obligation to make a pro rata division, or to distribute the same assets to beneficiaries similarly situated; rather, the Trustees may, in their discretion, make a non-pro rata division between the trusts or shares and non-pro rata distributions to such beneficiaries, as long as the total respective assets allocated to separate trusts or shares, or distributed to such beneficiaries, have equivalent or proportionate fair market value. After any division of the trust estate, Trustees may make joint investments with funds from some or all of the several shares or trusts, but Trustees shall keep a separate account for each share or trust.

O. Distributions to Beneficiaries. To make distributions hereunder directly to any beneficiary, to the guardian of such beneficiary's person or estate or to any other person deemed suitable by Trustees for the benefit of a beneficiary, or by direct payment of such beneficiary's expenses.

P. Tax Liabilities. To take any action and to make any election which, in the Trustees' discretion, is necessary to minimize the tax liabilities of the Trust and its beneficiaries, and the Trustees shall have the power to allocate any resulting benefits among the various beneficiaries or to otherwise make adjustments in the rights of any beneficiary as may be necessary to compensate for the consequences of any such action or election which the Trustees in their discretion determine could result in an unfair advantage to one beneficiary or group of beneficiaries over others.

Q. Administration Expenses. To pay all taxes, assessments, fees, charges and other expenses incurred in the administration of the Trust and the respective trusts and shares herein created, and to employ and pay reasonable compensation to agents and counsel, including investment counsel. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Trust Agreement, all taxes, assessments, fees, charges and other expenses incurred by the Trustees in the administration or protection of the Trust, including the compensation allowed by any court to the Trustees for their services hereunder, shall be a charge upon the trust estate and shall be paid by the Trustees out of the income therefrom, or in the event and to the extent that the income may be insufficient, then out of the principal of the trust estate, prior to final distribution of the trust property. The determination of the Trustees with respect to all such matters shall be conclusive upon all persons howsoever interested in the Trust.

R. Expenses of Last Illness. To pay the expenses of the last illness, funeral and burial of each Settlor and the estate, inheritance, succession and other death taxes, including any interest and/or penalties thereon, imposed under the laws of any jurisdiction by reason of the death of either Settlor or with respect to the transfer or receipt of any property passing or which has passed under or outside of the Trust, regardless of whether the same is included in the estate of a deceased Settlor.

S. Retention of Professionals. To retain such advisors, agents and counsel, including legal, tax and/or investment counsel, as Trustees deem advisable, and to make recommendations to Trustees and to assist Trustees in exercising the powers granted to Trustees pursuant to this Trust Agreement. Such advisors, agents or counsel shall be appointed or removed by Trustees by written instrument, signed and acknowledged by Trustees and delivered to the advisors, agents or counsel so appointed or removed. The Trustees shall pay a reasonable compensation for all services performed by such advisors, agents or counsel as a cost of administration of the Trust and such payments shall not affect the compensation to which Trustees shall be entitled.

T. Funds on Deposit. To hold funds on deposit in one or more accounts, with various financial institutions or brokerage companies, and in such form of account, whether or not interest bearing, as Trustees may deem advisable and prudent, without regard to the amount of any such deposit or whether it would otherwise be a suitable investment for funds of the Trust.

U. Safe Deposit Boxes. To open and maintain safe deposit boxes in the name of Trustees.

V. Power to Terminate Trust. If any trust created herein has at any time, in the opinion of the Trustees, reached a point where it is not economically feasible to continue, the Trustees may, in their discretion but are not required to, terminate such trust and, regardless of the age of the beneficiaries thereof, distribute the principal and any accrued or undistributed net income thereof to such beneficiaries, or to their guardian or other fiduciary.

W. Release/Restriction of Powers. To release or restrict the scope of any power that the Trustees may hold in connection with the Trust, whether such power is expressly granted herein or implied by law. The Trustees shall exercise this power in a written instrument executed by the Trustees specifying the power to be released or restricted and the nature of the restriction.

X. Powers Not Limited. The enumeration of the powers set forth in this Article shall not limit the general or implied powers of Trustees. No exercise of any power granted to Trustees shall operate to increase the estate tax or income tax liability of this Trust nor any of the separate trusts or shares herein created. Trustees shall have such additional powers as are now or may hereafter be conferred upon Trustees by law necessary to administer and carry out the express and implied purposes of this Trust, as well as the respective trusts and shares herein created, subject only to any limitations expressly provided herein. In no event shall this paragraph be construed as giving Trustees the authority to possess a power which will cause the Trust, or any beneficiary herein, to incur any additional tax liability.

5. Revocation and Amendment.

A. Revocation During Joint Lifetimes. During the joint lifetimes of Settlers, this Trust may be revoked, in whole or in part, as follows:

(1) Community Property. With respect to community property, by a written instrument signed by both Settlers acknowledged before a notary public and delivered to Trustees;

(2) Separate Property. With respect to the separate property of either Settlor, by written instrument signed by the Settlor who contributed such property, which instrument shall be duly acknowledged before a notary public and delivered to Trustees.

B. Amendment During Joint Lifetimes. At any time during the joint lifetimes of Settlers, Settlers may amend any of the terms of this Trust Agreement by a written instrument signed by both Settlers, which instrument shall be duly acknowledged before a notary public and delivered to Trustees. No amendment shall substantially increase the duties or liabilities of Trustees or change Trustees' compensation without Trustees' written consent, nor shall Trustees be obligated to act under such an amendment unless Trustees accept same.

C. Revocation and Amendment After Death of First Settlor. After the death of the first Settlor to die, the surviving Settlor shall have the power to amend, revoke or terminate the Survivor's Trust; however, upon the death of the first Settlor to die, the Decedent's Trust becomes irrevocable. Any revocation or amendment permitted under this section 9.3 shall be made by a written instrument signed by the surviving Settlor, which instrument shall be duly acknowledged before a notary public and delivered to Trustees.

D. Revocation and Amendment After the Death of Both Settlers. After the deaths of both Settlers, no portion of this Trust Agreement may be amended, revoked or terminated, except as otherwise stated herein.

E. Retention of Property Sufficient to Satisfy Liabilities. If this Trust Agreement is revoked with respect to all or a major portion of the property subject hereto, Trustees shall be entitled to retain any property reasonably necessary to secure payment of liabilities lawfully incurred by Trustees in the administration of this Trust, including Trustees' fees that have been earned, unless Settlor shall indemnify Trustees against all loss or expense.
