KAREN ELLISON, RECORDER

DECLARATION OF NATIONALITY

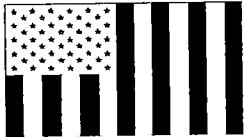

Declaration of Nationality

I, bryan, mark-linn, being of sound mind and lawful age of majority, do solemnly declare:

1. I am a non-combatant non-resident non-citizen non-political and non-religious civilian. I am a freeman inhabitant, American Indigenous national, I accept all oaths of offices of all public and Ecclesiastical officials who are the Trustee's for the free Inhabitants in accordance to all Constitutions and the Universal Declaration of Human Rights - Article 15. 1. Everyone has the right to a nationality. 2. No one shall be arbitrarily deprived of his nationality nor denied the right to change his nationality.
2. I am a Caucasian American freeman Indigenous national, born on the land of California Republic, of parents who were Caucasian, who were American-Principals and Indigenous whose parents time out of mind were and always had been Caucasian. As an hereditament I acquired directly the status of American-Principal of said state sharing equally in its sovereignty. See Slaughterhouse Cases, 83 U.S. 36 (1873). California Certificate of Live Birth, State File no. 51-062719
3. As a Caucasian American freeman, indigenous National born on the land of California Republic, I am not restricted by the 14th Amendment, and because I receive no protection from it, I have no reciprocal obligation to a 14th Amendment allegiance or sovereignty and owe no obedience to anyone under the 14th Amendment. See United States v. Wong Kim Ark, 169 U.S. 649 (1898).
4. As a free American national of the aforesaid state of my birth and derivative and mediate thereof, an indigenous national of the united states of America as contemplated in the California Constitutional Contract of 1879 and the Ireland Treaty of Peace and Friendship.
5. I am not a citizen of the United States as contemplated by the 14th Amendment, and I do not reside in any state with the intention of receiving from the Federal government or any other party a protection against the legislative power of that state pursuant to the authority of the 14th Amendment. The 14th amendment is for corporations only, not flesh and blood men or women.
6. I am, therefore, "nonresident" to the residency and "alien" to the citizenship of the 14th Amendment.
7. Since I am neither a citizen, resident, corporation or federal employee, the tax imposed in 26 U.S.C.1, pursuant to 26 C.F.R. 1.1-1, is not an applicable Internal Revenue Law to me. Notwithstanding the fact that I may have in past years filed U.S. Individual Income Tax Returns, such filings were done under mistake by me not knowing that such filings were and are mandated only on citizens and residents of the United States as contemplated by the 14th Amendment.
8. Furthermore, I am not a resident of any state under the 14th Amendment and hereby publicly disavow any contract, form, agreement, application, certificate, license, permit or other document that I or any other man or woman may have signed expressly or by acquiescence that would grant me any privileges and thereby ascribe to me rights and duties under a substantive system of law other than that of the Declaration of Independence, the Articles of Confederation, the Constitutional Contract of 1787 for the united states of America and of the state constitutions for the several states of the Union, exclusive of the 14th Amendment.

Declaration of Nationality

9. I reiterate that I have made the above determinations and this declaration under no duress, coercion, promise of reward or gain, or undue influence and of my own free will, with no mental reservation and with no intent to evade any legal duty under the laws of the United States or any of the several states.

10. I sincerely invite any person who has reason to know or believe that I am in error in my determinations and conclusions above to so inform me and to state the reason(s) they believe I am in error in writing at the location of my abode shown below.
