My Attorney-in-Fact and successor Attorney-in-Fact are authorized to execute releases and other documents necessary to obtain disclosure of individually identifiable health information, medical records, and patient files, including psychotherapy notes. This information includes, but is not limited to, any written opinion or assessment of my decision making capacity. This authorization and release apply to all information protected by HIPAA and shall only expire if I revoke this power of attorney.

Section 3.15 Reimbursement of Health Care Agent

My Attorney-in-Fact may reimburse my Agent under any health care directive, including but not limited to a Durable Power of Attorney for Health Care Decisions, even if such

Agent is my Attorney-in-Fact, for any costs (including legal fees) reasonably incurred in or as a result of acting pursuant to such health care directive.

Section 3.16 Employment of Professionals

My Attorney-in-Fact may retain, discharge, and pay for, in the sole discretion of my Attorney-in-Fact, the services of professionals, including, but not limited to, information technology experts, attorneys, accountants, financial planners, geriatric care managers, social workers, and any other health care professionals. My Attorney-in-Fact is not obligated to retain or pay for any health care professional on my behalf.

Section 3.17 Gifting Powers

Notwithstanding any other provision of this Durable Power of Attorney, my Attorney-in-Fact may make gifts of any interest I have in real or personal property (“my property”) to any person or entity, in any amount.

While gifts under this provision may be made to my Attorney-in-Fact, only a Special Attorney-in-Fact appointed under the provisions of Section 6.03 may make gifts to my Attorney-in-Fact. Neither my Attorney-in-Fact nor the Special Attorney-in-Fact may make gifts to himself or herself, his or her estate, his or her creditors, or the creditors of his or her estate. The Special Attorney-in-Fact appointed for this purpose must be an individual who is not related or subordinate to my Attorney-in-Fact within the meaning of Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Unless otherwise specified above, the value of any gift made pursuant to this Section may exceed the annual dollar limits of the federal gift tax exclusion under Section 2503(b) of the Internal Revenue Code. Further, any gift made pursuant to this Section must be made in accordance with, and to the extent my Attorney-in-Fact has actual knowledge of, the following:

- (i) my pattern of prior giving; or
- (ii) the provisions contained in my estate planning or any other documents for beneficiaries to receive assets upon my death (for example, a trust, will, annuity or life insurance contract, or deed naming beneficiaries).

Section 3.18 Intent to Return Home

It is my intention to return home if I should be in a hospital, rehabilitation center, or nursing home, and my Attorney-in-Fact shall take all steps, including, but not limited to, executing any document, affidavit, or Declaration of Intent to Return Home on my behalf, to effectuate the same.

Section 3.19 Domicile

My Attorney-in-Fact may change or maintain my domicile and/or residency for any and all purposes and take any and all actions to effectuate the foregoing.

Section 3.20 Nomination of Guardian

I intend hereby to render unnecessary any future proceeding for a court-appointed Guardian in the event I become temporarily or permanently incapacitated or incompetent. Accordingly, I request, in the strongest possible terms, that any court that may receive or act upon a petition for the appointment of a Guardian should deny such petition so long as my Attorney-in-Fact is acting under this power of attorney.

If a Guardian is ever appointed for me in spite of this request, I direct that the person serving, or named to serve, as my Attorney-in-Fact under this power of attorney be named as my Guardian.

Section 3.21 Business Activities

My Attorney-in-Fact may invest in, contribute to, establish, create, and fund any existing or newly created partnership, corporation, limited liability company, limited liability partnership, limited partnership, or other entity and to exercise all rights pertaining thereto.

Section 3.22 Caregiver Agreements

My Attorney-in-Fact may enter into, execute, modify, alter, or amend any contract or agreement (for example, a Caregiver Agreement or Personal Services Contract) pertaining to my medical, personal, or general care that I may require at my residence, assisted living facility, nursing facility, or in another's residence on my behalf. I expressly authorize my Attorney-in-Fact to also serve as a caregiver under any such agreement and to be paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of such agreement, provided, however, that such services are compensated at fair market value.

Section 3.23 Qualified Plans

My Attorney-in-Fact may deal in all respects with any Qualified Plan or Individual Retirement Account that I may own and to make any and all available elections or beneficiary designations on my behalf.

Section 3.24 Enforcement Proceedings

My Attorney-in-Fact may commence enforcement proceedings, at my expense, against any bank, savings and loan association, credit union, financial institution, brokerage firm, stock transfer agent, insurance company, title insurance company, or other person or entity that fails or refuses to honor this durable power of attorney.

Section 3.25 Credit Cards

My Attorney-in-Fact may use any credit card in my name; to make purchases on my behalf; to open a new credit card account and to close any existing credit card account.

Section 3.26 Online Accounts, Digital Assets, and Digital Devices

Without limiting any other provision of this Durable Power of Attorney, and subject to the limitations of any other provision of this Durable Power of Attorney, my Attorney-in-Fact has the powers described in this Section.

My Attorney-in-Fact has full authority to deal with Online Accounts, Digital Assets, and Digital Devices of all kinds, wherever located. This authority includes, but is not limited to, the power to acquire, create, establish, access, control, modify, cancel, delete, continue, transfer, and take possession of such accounts, assets, and devices.

However, if I have used an online tool to direct the custodian of an Online Account, Digital Asset, or Digital Device to not disclose certain information, and if the online tool allows for the modification or deletion of that direction at all times, then such direction overrides the authority granted in this Section.

Further, even though state law might not require a custodian to disclose a deleted digital asset, my Attorney-in-Fact is authorized to access them, and the custodian will be held harmless for doing so.

My Attorney-in-Fact may request and change my access credentials to any Online Account, Digital Asset, and Digital Device (such as username, password, and secret question), and any third-party dealing with my Attorney-in-Fact in good faith will be held harmless for releasing such access credentials.

For purposes of this Durable Power of Attorney, the following definitions apply:

(a) Online Accounts

The term "Online Accounts" means accounts that are accessible through the Internet or other similar method, including, but not limited to: bank accounts; investment accounts; other financial accounts; accounts with health care providers; social media accounts (like LinkedIn, Facebook, and Twitter); gambling and poker accounts; accounts with publishers; accounts for access to employee benefits; email accounts; accounts with Internet service providers; accounts to manage websites and website domain names; accounts with retail vendors; tax-preparation service accounts; affiliate marketing accounts; accounts with utility companies; user access accounts on third-party Digital Devices; and any other online account.

(b) Digital Assets

The term "Digital Assets" means intangible personal property related to digital technology (whether located on a Digital Device or an Online Account), including, but not limited to: emails sent or received; text messages sent or received; other digital communications sent or received; digital music; digital photographs; digital videos; software licenses; social network accounts; file sharing accounts; online access to financial accounts; domain registrations; DNS service accounts; website hosting accounts; personal and commercial websites; tax preparation service accounts; online store accounts; affiliate marketing accounts; and other types of online accounts and digital items that currently exist or may exist as technology develops.

(c) Digital Devices

The term “Digital Devices” means tangible personal property related to digital technology capable of storing Digital Assets or accessing Online Accounts, and includes, but is not limited to: desktop computers; laptop computers; tablet computing devices (tablets); other mobile computing devices; peripheral devices; hard disk drives; solid state drives; flash memory devices; other storage devices; mobile telephones; smartphones; and any other type of digital device that currently exists or may exist as technology develops.

Section 3.27 Domestic Pets

My Attorney-in-Fact may make reasonable expenditures for the care, maintenance, support, and general welfare of my domestic pets, if any. Specifically, and without limitation, my Attorney-in-Fact may consent to and make reasonable expenditures for medical treatment, boarding, and kennel care of any of my domestic pets. I authorize any and all payments from my funds for pet care provided by any person or entity, including my Attorney-in-Fact.

In addition, my Attorney-in-Fact may acquire a domestic service pet if, in my Attorney-in-Fact’s sole discretion, such service pet will benefit me.

Section 3.28 Estate and Long Term Care Planning

My Attorney-in-Fact may engage in estate and long term care planning in furtherance of achieving asset preservation. Property transfers made pursuant to the authority granted herein may be made without restriction as to the value of the transfer, and shall, for all purposes, be deemed to have been “in my best interest” if: (1) made in accordance with the provisions of this section; and (2) made in the context of estate planning, financial planning, Medicaid planning, long term care planning, or asset preservation planning pursuant to the recommendations of an attorney-at-law experienced in such matters. My Attorney-in-Fact may engage in such planning based on all relevant factors, including:

- (i) the value and nature of my property;
- (ii) my foreseeable obligations and need for maintenance;
- (iii) minimization of taxes, including income, estate, inheritance, generation skipping transfer, and gift taxes; and
- (iv) eligibility for a benefit, a program, or assistance under a statute or government regulation.

My Attorney-in-Fact may take any action necessary to effectuate the foregoing, including to qualify me for Social Security Benefits, Supplemental Security Income, Veterans Benefits, Medicaid or any other government benefit program. Such actions may include but shall not be limited to the following:

- (i) convert non-exempt resources into exempt resources;
- (ii) divest me of assets, without restriction as to the value of the divestment;

- (iii) sign an application for Medical Assistance or any other government benefit program;
- (iv) serve as representative payee;
- (v) make home improvements and additions to my family residence;
- (vi) pay off, partly or in full, any encumbrance on my family residence;
- (vii) purchase a family residence, if I do not own a family residence;
- (viii) purchase a more expensive family residence; and
- (ix) attend and represent me at Fair Hearings.

Section 3.29 Ownership and Rights of Survivorship

My Attorney-in-Fact may select, create, or change the rights of survivorship on any and all of my property, whether real or personal, including bank and investment accounts, insurance policies, annuities, qualified or nonqualified retirement plans, and real property interests, and may do so by any means, including by changing ownership, including the addition of a new joint tenant or the deletion of an existing joint tenant. My Attorney-in-Fact may designate survivorship rights among one or more remaindermen and may designate the form of title among multiple remaindermen, including, but not limited to, as tenants in common, joint tenants, community property, or tenants by the entirety.

In particular, my Attorney-in-Fact may execute any deed designating beneficiaries, including an enhanced life estate deed (also known as a “ladybird” deed), including with respect to my homestead property, if any, and may conduct any and all transactions with full power and authority in my Attorney-in-Fact to sell, convey, mortgage, lease, and otherwise dispose of the property in accordance with the terms of the deed.

Section 3.30 Beneficiary Designations

My Attorney-in-Fact may select, create, revoke, or change beneficiary designations on any and all of my property, whether real or personal, including bank and investment accounts, insurance policies, annuities, qualified or nonqualified retirement plans, and real property interests.

Section 3.31 Spiritual and Religious Needs

My Attorney-in-Fact may arrange for the involvement of religious clergy or spiritual leaders in my care, provide said persons access to me at all times, arrange or maintain my membership in religious or spiritual organizations, and create opportunities for me to derive comfort and spiritual satisfaction from such activities, including the purchase of religious books, tapes, and other materials.

Section 3.32 Companionship

My Attorney-in-Fact may provide for such companionship for me, in the sole discretion of my Attorney-in-Fact, as will meet my needs and preferences at a time when I am disabled or otherwise unable to arrange for such companionship myself.

Section 3.33 U.S. Mail

My Attorney-in-Fact may open, read, respond to, and redirect my mail, and represent me before the U.S. Postal Service in all matters relating to mail service.

Article Four Incidental Powers

My Attorney-in-Fact may perform those acts and execute and deliver those legal documents necessary or appropriate to the exercise of the powers set forth in this Durable Power of Attorney, including, but not limited to, the following incidental powers.

Section 4.01 Court Proceedings

My Attorney-in-Fact may commence any court proceedings necessary to protect my legal rights and interests under this Durable Power of Attorney including, but not limited to:

- (i) actions for declaratory judgments from any court of competent jurisdiction interpreting the validity of this Durable Power of Attorney and any of the acts sanctioned by this Durable Power of Attorney; provided, however, that my Attorney-in-Fact need not seek a declaratory judgment to perform any act sanctioned by this Durable Power of Attorney;
- (ii) actions for mandatory injunctions requiring any person or entity to comply with my Attorney-in-Fact's directions as authorized by this Durable Power of Attorney; and
- (iii) actions for actual and punitive damages and the recoverable costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, of such litigation against any person or entity who negligently or willfully fails or refuses to follow my Attorney-in-Fact's directions as authorized by this Durable Power of Attorney.

Section 4.02 Document Execution

My Attorney-in-Fact may sign, execute, endorse, seal, acknowledge, deliver, and file or record all appropriate legal documents necessary to exercise the powers granted under this Durable Power of Attorney.

Section 4.03 Custody of Documents

My Attorney-in-Fact may take, give, or deny custody of my important documents, including my Will and any codicils, trust agreements, deeds, leases, life insurance policies, contracts, or securities. My Attorney-in-Fact may disclose or not disclose the whereabouts or contents of those documents as my Attorney-in-Fact believes appropriate.

Article Five

Limitation on Powers

All powers granted to my Attorney-in-Fact under this Durable Power of Attorney are subject to the limitations set forth in this Article.

Section 5.01 My Attorney-in-Fact to Avoid Disrupting My Estate Plan

If it becomes necessary for my Attorney-in-Fact to liquidate or reinvest any of my assets to provide support for me, I direct that my Attorney-in-Fact, to the extent that it is reasonably possible, avoid disrupting the dispositive provisions of my estate plan as established by me prior to my incapacity.

If it is necessary to disrupt the dispositive provisions of my estate plan, my Attorney-in-Fact will use his or her best efforts to restore my plan as soon as possible. My Attorney-in-Fact will make reasonable efforts to obtain and review my estate plan. I authorize any person with knowledge of my estate plan or possession of my estate planning documents to disclose information to my Attorney-in-Fact and to provide copies of documents to my Attorney-in-Fact.

Section 5.02 Tax Sensitive Powers

No individual serving as my Attorney-in-Fact may exercise any fiduciary power or discretion if the exercise of that power or discretion would:

- (i) cause any income generated by my property to be attributed to my Attorney-in-Fact for federal income tax purposes;
- (ii) cause the value of any property subject to this Durable Power of Attorney to be included in my Attorney-in-Fact's gross estate for federal estate tax purposes;
- (iii) cause any distribution made or allowed to be made by my Attorney-in-Fact to be treated as a gift from my Attorney-in-Fact; or
- (iv) discharge a legal obligation of my Attorney-in-Fact.

If the exercise of a power by my Attorney-in-Fact under this Durable Power of Attorney would cause any of the foregoing results, any other Attorney-in-Fact that I have designated in this Durable Power of Attorney to serve with the Attorney-in-Fact or as a successor Attorney-in-Fact may exercise the power or discretion, so long as such exercise would not also cause any of the foregoing results. The other Attorney-in-Fact acting for this purpose must be an individual who is not related or subordinate to my Attorney-in-Fact within the meaning of Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Alternatively, a Special Attorney-in-Fact appointed under the provisions of Section 6.03 may exercise the power or discretion. The Special Attorney-in-Fact appointed for this purpose must be an individual who is not related or subordinate to my Attorney-in-Fact within the meaning of Section 672(c) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Article Six

Administrative Powers and Provisions

This Article contains certain administrative powers and provisions that facilitate the use of the Durable Power of Attorney and that protect my Attorney-in-Fact and those who rely upon my Attorney-in-Fact.

Section 6.01 Compensation and Reimbursement to Attorney-in-Fact

If my Attorney-in-Fact is a professional (such as an attorney; accountant; geriatric care manager; professional guardian, conservator, or other fiduciary; or other professional, including entities that provide similar services), my Attorney-in-Fact is entitled to compensation for services rendered pursuant to this Durable Power of Attorney at such professional's then stated rates. If my Attorney-in-Fact is not a professional, my Attorney-in-Fact is entitled to such compensation at a reasonable rate under the circumstances.

Whether or not my Attorney-in-Fact is a professional, my Attorney-in-Fact is entitled to reimbursement for costs reasonably incurred while acting as my Attorney-in-Fact, including, but not limited to: phone bills; postage; and travel expenses, if necessary, to supervise my care.

Section 6.02 Release of Information

My Attorney-in-Fact may release and obtain, as the case may be, any and all information regarding my financial investments, taxes, and estate planning, including any information or documents regarding stocks, bonds, certificates of deposit, bank accounts, tax returns, retirement accounts, pension plans, wills, trusts, powers of attorney, advance directives, and any other documents or information regarding my financial affairs, taxes, or estate planning from my attorneys-at-law, financial advisors, insurance professionals, accountants, stockbrokers, stock transfer agents, and any other persons having such information.

I release these persons or entities from any liability for releasing the above-referenced information to my Attorney-in-Fact in reliance on this Section.

If my Attorney-in-Fact is an attorney-at-law or other accounting or financial professional, the professional regulations of my Attorney-in-Fact's profession and federal law may prohibit my Attorney-in-Fact from releasing information about my financial affairs to others if I am a client of my Attorney-in-Fact. This instrument, therefore, is a limited waiver of any privilege (such as the attorney-client privilege) that I have established with any Attorney-in-Fact as a client. The privilege is waived for the limited purpose of permitting my Attorney-in-Fact to perform his or her duties under this Durable Power of Attorney.

Section 6.03 Appointment of a Special or Ancillary Attorney-in-Fact

My Attorney-in-Fact may appoint, in writing, a corporate fiduciary or an individual to serve as Special Attorney-in-Fact to exercise any power under this Durable Power of Attorney. My Attorney-in-Fact may revoke any such appointment at will.

If my Attorney-in-Fact determines that it is necessary or desirable to appoint an Ancillary Attorney-in-Fact to act under this Durable Power of Attorney in a jurisdiction other than this one, my Attorney-in-Fact may do so. In making an appointment, my Attorney-in-Fact may sign, execute, deliver, acknowledge, and make declarations in any documents that may be necessary, desirable, convenient, or proper in order to carry out the appointment.

A Special or Ancillary Attorney-in-Fact may exercise all powers granted by this Durable Power of Attorney unless expressly limited elsewhere in this Durable Power of Attorney or by the instrument appointing the Special or Ancillary Attorney-in-Fact. A Special or Ancillary Attorney-in-Fact may resign at any time by delivering written notice of resignation to my Attorney-in-Fact. Notice of resignation shall be effective in accordance with the terms of the notice.

Section 6.04 Attorney-in-Fact Authorized to Employ My Attorney

My Attorney-in-Fact may employ the attorney who prepared this Durable Power of Attorney or any other attorney employed by me in connection with my estate plan or business matters and I specifically:

- (i) waive any and all conflicts of interest that might arise through such employment;
- (ii) authorize the attorney to make full disclosure of my estate plan and business to the Attorney-in-Fact; and
- (iii) authorize the attorney to accept the engagement.

Section 6.05 Fiduciary Eligibility of Attorney-in-Fact

My Attorney-in-Fact is eligible to serve in any other fiduciary capacity for me or for my benefit, including trustee, guardian, conservator, committee, executor, administrator, or personal representative.

Section 6.06 Amendment and Revocation

I may amend or revoke this Durable Power of Attorney at any time. Amendments to this document must be made in writing by me personally (not by my Attorney-in-Fact) and must be attached to the original of this document and recorded in the same county or counties as the original if the original is recorded.

The written notice of amendment or revocation to my Attorney-in-Fact must be:

- (i) personally delivered and receipt of delivery received;
- (ii) mailed postage prepaid by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the last known address of my Attorney-in-Fact; or

- (iii) sent by express mail or commercial expedited delivery providing a receipt for such delivery.

If this Durable Power of Attorney is amended or revoked, no person will incur any liability to me or my estate as a result of permitting my Attorney-in-Fact to exercise any power authorized by this Durable Power of Attorney prior to that person's receipt of notice that it was amended or revoked.

Section 6.07 Resignation

My Attorney-in-Fact may resign by the execution of a written resignation delivered to me (or my guardian if I am incapacitated and one has been appointed for me) and to any Attorney-in-Fact serving together with the resigning Attorney-in-Fact, or if none, to the next successor Attorney-in-Fact. If I am incapacitated, notice may be delivered to any person with whom I am residing or who has my care and custody.

Section 6.08 Signature of Attorney-in-Fact

My Attorney-in-Fact shall use substantially the following form when signing documents on my behalf pursuant to this power:

[Attorney-in-Fact's name], as Attorney-in-Fact for Patricia A. Graham.

Section 6.09 Interpretation

This Durable Power of Attorney is a general power of attorney and should be interpreted as granting my Attorney-in-Fact all general powers permitted under Nevada law. The description of specific powers is not intended to, nor does it, limit or restrict any of the general powers granted to my Attorney-in-Fact.

Section 6.10 Use of "Attorney-in-Fact" Nomenclature

The word "Attorney-in-Fact" and any modifying or equivalent word or substituted pronoun includes the singular and the plural, as well as the masculine, feminine, and neuter genders.

Section 6.11 Third-Party Reliance

No person who relies in good faith on the authority of my Attorney-in-Fact under this Durable Power of Attorney will incur any liability to me, my estate, or my heirs, successors, and assigns.

Any party dealing with my Attorney-in-Fact may conclusively rely upon an affidavit or certificate of my Attorney-in-Fact stating that:

- (i) the authority granted to my Attorney-in-Fact under this Durable Power of Attorney is in effect;
- (ii) my Attorney-in-Fact's actions are within the scope of my Attorney-in-Fact's authority under this Durable Power of Attorney;
- (iii) I was competent when I executed this Durable Power of Attorney;
- (iv) I have not revoked this Durable Power of Attorney; and

(v) my Attorney-in-Fact is currently serving as my Attorney-in-Fact.

Section 6.12 Effect of Duplicate Originals or Copies

If this Durable Power of Attorney has been executed in multiple counterparts, each counterpart original will have equal force and effect. My Attorney-in-Fact may make copies of this Durable Power of Attorney and each copy will have the same force and effect as the original. A copy means an electronic, digital, facsimile, photocopy, or other reproduction of this Durable Power of Attorney.

Section 6.13 Governing Law

This Durable Power of Attorney's validity and interpretation will be governed by Nevada law. To the extent permitted by law, this Durable Power of Attorney is applicable to all of my property (whether real or personal, tangible or intangible, or legal or equitable), wherever located, and whether or not the property is owned by me now or in the future.

Section 6.14 Severability

If any provision of this Durable Power of Attorney is declared invalid for any reason, the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect.

Article Seven Duties and Liabilities of My Attorney-in-Fact

Section 7.01 Duty to Account

My Attorney-in-Fact shall render statements of account of receipts, disbursements, principal on hand, and transactions conducted on my behalf if:

- (i) ordered by a court;
- (ii) requested by me, a guardian, conservator, trustee, or other fiduciary acting on my behalf; or
- (iii) upon my death, requested by the Personal Representative of my estate.

If so requested, my Attorney-in-Fact shall comply with the request within 30 days or provide a writing or other record substantiating why additional time is needed and shall comply with the request within an additional 30 days.

Section 7.02 Limitation of Liability of My Attorney-in-Fact

I release and discharge any Attorney-in-Fact acting in good faith from any and all civil liability and from all claims or demands of all kinds whatsoever by me, my estate, and my heirs, successors, and assigns arising out of the acts or omissions of my Attorney-in-Fact, except for duties committed dishonestly, with improper motive, or with reckless indifference to the purposes of this Durable Power of Attorney or my best interests, including willful misconduct or gross negligence. This protection extends to the estate, heirs, successors, and assigns of my Attorney-in-Fact.
